

Accessibility Statement for The Women's Company Private Member Website

The Women's Company (TWC) is committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all our members, including those with disabilities. We strive to continually improve the user experience of our private member website and apply relevant accessibility standards to enhance usability for everyone.

Accessibility Standards

We aim to conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, Level AA, as published by the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C). These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible to people with a wide range of disabilities, including visual, auditory, motor, and cognitive.

Measures Taken

To support accessibility, TWC has taken the following measures:

- Designed the website with a clean and simple layout
- Provided text alternatives for non-text content
- Ensured sufficient contrast between text and background
- Enabled keyboard navigation and focus indicators
- Continually reviewed content for clarity and readability

Limitations and Alternatives

Despite our efforts, some content may not yet be fully accessible. We are actively working to address any such issues. If you encounter any barriers, we are happy to provide content or assistance in alternative formats upon request.

Feedback and Assistance

If you have trouble accessing any part of our site, or have suggestions for improvement, please contact us:

Email: twcthewomenscompany@gmail.com

Mailing Address: The Women's Company, 269 So. Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90212

We aim to respond to accessibility-related inquiries within 5 business days.

Compliance

This statement is in accordance with the California Unruh Civil Rights Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Last Updated: July 14, 202